*Board Comment:
Member Jeane thanked staff for all the work they do and for bringing the resolution forth.
Member Singh shared that his wife's father enrolled in adult education the day after he moved here. He took it on to learn how to read and write, and understand the language. He had a desire to communicate, which is a human desire to get to know people. The adult education space was where he regained and rekindled those skills from a language perspective. Member Singh thinks this resolution is really important and he is excited to support it this evening.*

Member Pritchett made a motion with a second from Member Rhodes. Student Board Member referential ves

9.2 Adult Education Update (Dr. Susan Gilmore, Dr. Carla Galbraith, and Clifton Carley)

Dr. Carla Galbraith and Clifton Carley presented the historical timeline, spoke about the A. Warren McClaskey Adult Center and Charles A. Jones Career and Educational Center, SETA Sacramento Works Job Center, upcoming forefront Member Pritchett asked staff if we still have credit recovery at all of our school sites, and if students are able to take it right at their high schools. Member Pritchett asked if the UCMerced system catches them on the early indicator, and are they able to get them into credit recovery, and do we have enough licenses to be able to offer that to them.

Member Kayatta shared that this is something that parents talk to him about all the time, and that they are excited about and want to learn about. Not only are these skills that kids will have when they graduate, but this is something that kids get excited for, and a reason to go to school. Member Kayatta is excited about continuing to grow this. Member Kayatta is excited to see that more special education kids are coming through. Member Kayatta has been reading about the special education space for kids who don't necessarily thrive in the traditional educational models that we have

These kids can actually really thrive in these environments. From what Member Kayatta has seen and what he has been reading, a lot of this can really work for them. To the extent that maybe we can look into how to attract these kids who are struggling, because of the manifestations of their data presented was overwhelmingly positive. Member Singh shared that this is an opportunity to showcase piece by piece how we are effectively improving our school district, how we are improving our schools, and we have an opportunity to prove it at each junction. Member Singh shared that staff are doing a great job at creating new schools.
